Dr. Joshua Lederberg
Dept. of Genetics, College of Agriculture
University of Wisconsin
Madison, Wisconsin

Dear Doctor Lederberg:

Your letter was forwarded to me at this address.
I am on leave of absence from the University of Tennessee.

I have sent your letter back to Dr. I. D. Michelson, University of Tennessee, Memphis, who has continued his studies on the biologic activities of some of the enteric bacilli. I do not know if he still has the strains of E. coli, but I am sure that he will write to you at an early date.

Dr. Deere is in Memphis. He now gives full time to his medical practice.

Sincerely,

Anna Dean Dulaney
